

Labour Market Information (LMI) for North East Lincolnshire

Understanding the local job market can help you make well-informed decisions about your career. Here are some key insights into the labour market in North East Lincolnshire:

- Growing Sectors: Health and social care, logistics, food production, and renewable energy are key industries.
- Food Processing: With Grimsby as a seafood hub, roles in food production, processing, and quality control are plentiful.
- Renewable Energy: Offshore wind farms provide opportunities in engineering, maintenance, and environmental roles.
- Logistics and Transport: The area's proximity to ports supports careers in driving, warehousing, and supply chains.
- Tourism and Hospitality: Coastal attractions create seasonal opportunities in hotels, restaurants, and leisure services.

Current Job Trends

- Skilled Trades: High demand for construction workers, electricians, and plumbers.
- Healthcare: Increasing need for carers and nursing staff.
- IT and Digital Roles: Growing importance of digital skills in various sectors.