

Labour Market Information (LMI) for North Lincolnshire

Understanding the local job market can help you make well-informed decisions about your career. Here are some key insights into the labour market in North Lincolnshire:

- Growing Sectors: Key industries include agriculture, steel production, logistics, and health and social care.
- Manufacturing and Steel: Scunthorpe's steel industry provides engineering and technical roles.
- Agriculture: The rural area supports jobs in farming, food production, and agricultural machinery.
- Health and Social Care: A growing sector with opportunities for carers, healthcare assistants, and nurses.
- Logistics and Warehousing: Proximity to transport networks supports careers in supply chains and distribution.

Current Job Trends

- Engineering Roles: High demand in manufacturing and steel production.
- Healthcare: Carers and nurses are consistently needed.
- Skilled Trades: Growing opportunities for electricians, plumbers, and builders.